- / Income insurance – safeguard your salary up to SEK 100,000 month
- / Sweden's best salary statistics – compare your salary
- / Labour law and career matters – advice from our experts

Akavia brings together 144,000 economists, lawyers, social scientists, IT graduates, human resources graduates, communicators, entrepreneurs, and managers. Founded in 2020 by Jusek and Civilekonomerna, we are now one of the largest associations within Saco, the Swedish Confederation of Professional Associations.

ABOUT MEMBERSHIP

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

As a member of Akavia, you gain access to tools that provide both support and peace of mind – everything to help you make the most of your professional life. Here are some examples of what your membership includes.

/ Income insurance

Protect your salary with our income insurance. Included in the membership, it can give you 80 percent of your salary up to SEK 100,000 per month if you lose your job.

/ Sweden's best salary statistics

We are salary experts. Regardless of whether you want to prepare for salary negotiations or to understand what affects your starting salary, we are here to help. Get access to Sweden's best salary statistics for graduates or book a call with our salary consultants.

/ Labour law and career matters

As a member of Akavia, we are here to support you if you find yourself in a difficult situation at work, or if you need help reviewing your employment contract. In addition to providing labour law advice, we offer several tools to help you make your next career move, such as interview training and resume review.

WHAT DOES IT COST?

The Akavia membership fee is SEK 330 per month for practicing professionals. To get access to our income insurance, you also need to be a member of Akademikernas a-kassa unemployment fund, which costs SEK 140 per month.

SAFE SWITCHING

If you are already a member of another trade union or unemployment fund, you can easily transfer your earned membership seniority to Akavia. Do you have any questions for us? We would love to hear from you.
